What's the heavenly assignment that God has given to us? When a vision God gives becomes more tangible and accessible, it's simply beautiful. Our assignments are when Heaven touches Earth and connect within our lives. It is this instant that God is able to do amazing things, for His glory, by using what we have said yes to. Are we willing to build the walls of God's assignments?

With billions of people on this planet and babies being born every second, it is possible that whatever our assignments are, the impact has the potential to be bigger than what we can imagine! No assignment is insignificant when building God's Kingdom. All assignments are impactful and contribute to His greater purpose. What "WALLS" are preventing us from walking in our heavenly assignments?

Right now, in this August issue of JAMES DAVIS DOOR POST Newsletter, this staff writes about "WALLS!" Those who have eyes to read let them see and hear His voice. [C Nehemiah 3:1-32].

THE DOOR POST SCRIPTURE:

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf." (Hebrews 6:19-20 NIV).

"WALLS:" have the ability to prevent access. Think about it, something that is standing still has so much power to prevent people from entering into a next room, next part or phase. When renovating we can find "one too many" walls in a particular area. We might ask for a wall to be torn down because we envision more space and light. We can see the potential but there is something standing in the way. [C Nehemiah 7:5 EASY].

AS it is in the NATURAL, So it is in the SPIRITUAL!"

Who is responsible for our walls in life? Answer: the one who puts up the wall. We are God's builders of our lives and we decide what walls we are going to put up. We even determine what walls we need to tear down by the direction of the Word of God and the discernment of the Holy Ghost. [C Nehemiah 7:1-2 KJV; 8:1 HCSB].

SOME WALLS PROTECT: us from the enemy. They control our interaction and defend us from attacks of the adversary. When others try to frighten us or stand in our way during the course of our building project, we must make no effort to entertain what is said or done. [C Nehemiah 7:3-4 AMP].

SOME DISTRACTIONS: come from voices that are surrounding us, even in our churches. Many voices can impede us from fulfilling our assignments. We do not have to allow impeding walls to effect us. Nehemiah didn't allow voices to deter his building. He ignored distracting voices, yet he responded in a way to protect his character. According to scripture, Nehemiah continued building the wall. He did not come down from his assignment. Even when the rumors began to spread regarding his position with the king, Tobiah, Sandballat, and Geshem were his enemies. The enemy's distractions, intimidation was not successful. [C Mathew 3:6-7 NIV].

SOME WALLS MUST BE COMPLETED! It is important and necessary that as we build whatever we have been called to build, we must remain solid and stable in what we believe. If we are not praying diligently and standing strong in our faith, unnecessary created walls will become strongholds. Strongholds that have been fortified by the enemy are difficult to pull down. [C Deuteronomy 32:4].

STOP WRESTLING: Between the process and the promise, the journey and the manifestation. We all must desire access to the miraculous things that God has waiting for us. Do not stop the assignment. Whatever we do, let's keep building! [C Nehemiah 8:8, NLT 62:2].

SEEK KINGDOM VISION:

“WALLS!”

Pastor Eugene Collins, III

- * ASSIGNMENTS: shift us from old occupations to being builders of Heavenly walls. [C 2 Corinthians 12:1, 4; 2 Thessalonians 1:11 KJV].
- * LEADERSHIP: require sacrifice! As we see in Nehemiah 1 and 2, assignments can be big sacrifices. It means walking away from life as we know it, simply to rebuild walls of hope for others. As seen in Nehemiah 3, when building walls that are God’s idea, its pressure shifts to obedience, strategy and instructions that God gives us.
- * ASSIGNMENTS: aren’t about what one can do or can’t do, but more about willingness to be obedient. He will handle the rest.
- * WORLDLY WALLS: getting in the way can’t disqualify us. Walls fall down because of powerful obedience, perseverance, and consistency.

WALLS!

WALLS: In ancient times, city houses were constructed of bricks, made from clay, reed and hardened in the sun. The walls of Nineveh were wide enough to drive three chariots side-by-side. Babylon walls were wide enough to drive six chariots abreast on the top.

In scriptural language, a wall is a symbol of salvation [C Isaiah 26:1; 60:18 NLT], of the protection of God; [C Zechariah 2:5 AMP], for those who afford protection [C 1 Samuel 25:16; Isaiah 2:15 KJV]; and a barrier for the rich in their own conceit [C Proverbs 18:11 AMPC]. A “fortified” wall of bronze is symbolic of prophets and their testimony against the wicked [C Jeremiah 15:20 NRSV]. A “wall of partition,” [C 1 Ephesians 2:14 KJV, HCSB], and a dividing wall of hostility causes division of temple worship and Jewish practices; it will separate Jew from Gentile.

“ANOTHER WALL SYMBOLISM” is the great gulf in time, language, and culture between our day and biblical times. This makes knowledge of walls essential for thorough understanding of the bible.

WHY FORTIFY WALLS? The calling is to be a strong city, His Salvation City, built and fortified with Salvation. This means we are to sing [testify] about His strength within our body temple, house, and country. By being His strong city, it shows we have a strong God. His plan is, no violence, no wasting, no fear, or destruction to be found within our houses [borders, temples]. Our salvation, is it a wall with gates of praise?

God’s Blessings Can Come In Sevens!
THINK IMAGE:

IN THE BATTLE OF JERICO: the number seven represents God’s blessing: 1). They walked around the walls of Jericho for seven days. 2). They were lead by seven priests. 3). On the seventh day, they marched around the walls seven times. God’s promise came true, the walls did collapse. [C Joshua 6:20-27 NIV].

SEVEN was the people’s number. We may have a different number — but rest assured that he knows our number. He know precisely when our assignments will be victorious! OUR DAYS are written down in His book before our birth. Our job is to have faith in our assignments. We must trust that the Lord is preparing us for victory by shaping us in the difficult times of our walls. [C Heb. 1:12; Isaiah 59:10 ERV].

PONDER THIS IMAGE: Jesus is our supreme assignment example that there’s always hope during our trails, but in end great reward awaiting us [C Ps. 139:1-16]. SOME WALLS MUST FALL DOWN!
